

Andreas Göthberg appointed OneMed Group's CEO

The Board of Directors of OneMed Group has invited Andreas Göthberg from Sweden to be the company's new Chief Executive Officer. Göthberg joins the company from his current position as Chief Executive Officer of SATS, the leading Nordic fitness centre chain. Göthberg will assume his new position on 1 May 2008. By agreement, OneMed Group's long-serving CEO Jorma Turunen will retire on that same date.

OneMed Group is the largest healthcare product distributor in Northern Europe, with operations in all of the Baltic countries and Poland in addition to the Nordic countries. The company is owned by the Nordic private equity investor CapMan as well as executive management and it has grown strongly through company acquisitions.

"We wish Andreas Göthberg a warm welcome as the Group's new CEO. We believe his long-term sales and marketing experience in the service of Cloetta Fazer, Coca-Cola and Kraft Foods, among others, and his outstanding work as CEO of SATS. in creating a leading and highly successful integrated Nordic chain provide an excellent foundation for further development of OneMed," says Ari Tolppanen, Chairman of the Board of OneMed Group. "At the same time we would like to thank Jorma Turunen for his unique work in achieving profitable growth for OneMed and for his pioneering work in both the Finnish and Nordic healthcare sectors," continues Tolppanen.

I'm very excited to continue the work of building OneMed Group to deliver the best value to the customers in the Baltic Rim. I believe the customer relations, the management team and the ownership structure lay an excellent foundation for increased value creation", says Andreas Göthberg.

OneMed Group's sales consist of basic and specialist medical products, laboratory supplies and chemicals as well as diagnostics and biotechnical products, and cover the entire healthcare and laboratory sector. In addition to traditional hospital supplies, the healthcare product range includes a wide selection of hospital equipment for medical imaging and surgery as well as anaesthesia and intensive care.

OneMed Group (www.onemed.com) has its own sales companies in the Nordic countries, the Baltic States and Poland. OneMed has around 700 employees and pro forma net sales for financial year 2007 were approximately EUR 320 million.

For further information please contact:

Ari Tolppanen	+358 50040 7343
Jorma Turunen	+358 40045 9448
Andreas Göthberg	+46 73020 4300